

Evelyn Louise (Krisher) Richtsmeier was born May 3, 1939 to Chester Krisher and Erna (Duesing) Krisher in Medford, WI.

Evelyn had two siblings: Edward Kisher and Calving Krisher.

Evelyn grew up on a dairy farm near Medford Wisconsin.

Evelyn married Wallace David Richtsmeier on March 17, 1958. She filled the "farmer's wife" role very well until Wallace's passing March 1, 1979. She reminisced about temporary hired men bunking in the house basement as she did laundry, cooked harvest meals, along with keeping up with her garden. The highlight of Wallace and Evelyn's lives came every fall when they hosted Hunter Convention for their church. During their lives, they had four children. Mark (Donna) of Hunter ND; Maureen Larson (Steve) of Bloomington MN; Marilyn Curtis (Ross) of Fallbrook CA. and Andrew (Jade) of Grand Rapids MN.

Evelyn kept a strong trust in God all her adult life. As she faced difficult experiences, her faith helped her rise above the experience to see the grandeur picture ahead. The last few months of her life was most challenging of all. As her health failed, dementia set in and her mind wanted to keep going, but her body was too weak and frail. She simply couldn't comprehend what was happening. We will be forever grateful for all the staff at Edgewood Assisted Living, Elim Skilled Care, and Hospice that helped her through this very challenging time. More than ever, we all realize it takes a village to get to the finish line.

Evelyn is preceded in death by her husband, Wallace Richtsmeier, her parents Chester & Erna Krisher, her brother Edward Krisher, Braham MN, and numerous uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Evelyn is survived by her aunt Mabel Alderink, Minneapolis MN. Mabel was more like a sister to Evelyn. Also survived by brother Calvin (Daurie) Krisher Scandinavea WI, her 4 children, 13 grandchildren, Todd (Emery), Whitefish MT; Jason (Heidi) Hunter, ND; Karma, West Fargo ND; Matt (Meg) Larson, Duluth MN; Mike (Kristina) Larson, Beldenville WI; Jonathan Larson, Anoka MN; Paul Larson, Bloomington MN; Maurisa Larson, Anoka MN; Ben (Katie) Curtis, Nampa ID; Alex Curtis, Fargo ND; Chet (Angela) Curtis, Belgrade MT; Cassandra, San Diego CA; Ryan (Tally), San Luis Obispo CA. and 11 great-grandchildren, Wynter & Arya Richtsmeier; Jett & Ember Richtsmeier; Finn, Lev, & Inga Larson, Grady & Rayna Larson, Nolan Curtis; Mialynn Curtis. 32 We Love the Perfect Way
Truett Friend (altered) James M. Black

1. We love the per-fect way of God, The low-ly path the Saviour trod;
2. We hear His voice and bless the hand That leads us through the des-ert land;
3. Our God is mer-ci-ful and kind: He found us lost in sin and blind,
4. His arm is strong: we do not fear, Though Sa-tan's host is ev-er near;

1. Pilgrims and strangers here we roam: We're travelling on to God and home.
2. We know the end is fair and sweet, Where we shall rest our wea-ry feet.
3. And gent-ly led us to the light; Our song shall praise Him day and night.
4. He will pro-tect us and de-fend: And keep us faith-ful to the end.

CHORUS
In Je-sus we have found the way Which leads to God and end-less day;

While here on earth He lends us breath, We will be true, be true till death.

359 So Strange It Seems

1. So strange it seems and won-drous What Thou hast done for me;
2. The world and flesh and dev-il All try to hin-der me
3. O keep mine eyes a - noint-ed God's best each day to see;

1. My course in life is al-tered Since I have met with Thee.
2. And show me what I'm miss-ing As I go on with Thee;
3. May earth's vain, emp-ty plea-sures Have no pow'r o - ver me.

1. For on my way to heav-en Thou, Lord, my feet hast set,
2. But Thou to me hast o-pened A bet-ter, grand-er view:
3. When Sa-tan tries to hin-der, And doubt fills me with fear,

CHORUS
Help me to keep on go-ing With heart and pur-pose true,

Earth's fad-ing joys re - ced-ing, And heav'n's re-ward in view.
